Literacy Seminars Across Academic Disciplines for Secondary Teachers

Cardinal Stritch University Main Campus
6801 N Yates Road, Milwaukee WI 53217
Sr. Camille Kliebhan Conference Center

These literacy classes are created for secondary second and third year beginning teachers and beyond across academic disciplines to expand their repertoire of literacy strategies across academic disciplines.

This series of four sessions is designed to add to the body of knowledge and strategies used in an exemplary literacy program. Practical application of ideas will be the goal.

Who Should Attend:
6-12th grade second and third year beginning teachers, their mentors and experienced educators across academic disciplines.

Credit:
One graduate credit is available for educators who attend all four seminars for approximately $160. More information will be available at the first seminar.

Cost:
Free. It's a service provided to our consortium members.

Due to the expenses involved in offering this seminar, if you register and do not attend without proper notification, a fee of $25 will be assessed to your district.

Required Material:
Please bring your copy of the Wisconsin Continuum of Teacher Development.

Registration:
Individuals may register online at www.stritch.edu/sewntp
Registration is limited to 50 participants.

Registration deadline:
Two weeks before each seminar
