

SEWNTP:

Transforming Education – One New Teacher at a Time www.stritch.edu/sewntp

Online Principal Network Forums

Online via Blackboard Collaborate

October 11, 2012 February 13, 2013 7:30 a.m. – 9:30 a.m.

The purpose of this forum is to support principals and assistant/associate principals in promoting and utilizing effective induction strategies within their schools and district.

Who Should Attend:

Principals, assistant/associate principals, and other administrators who work with beginning teachers and their mentors.

Outcomes:

- Support principals in determining effective strategies with their beginning teachers
- Foster strong principal-mentor-beginning teacher relationships
- Identify and comprehend effective induction strategies among a network of principals
- Develop a communication network about induction among principals in the consortium districts
- Consider the role of formative assessment in teacher induction and its relationship to supervision
- Assess current practices and set next steps

Cost:

Free. It's a service provided to our consortium members.

Due to the expenses involved in offering this seminar, if you register and do not attend without proper notification, a fee of $25 will be assessed to your district.

Facilitator:

Bonni Haber, SEWNTP Administrator Liaison

Registration:

Individuals may register online at www.stritch.edu/sewntp

Registration deadline:

October forum: September 27, 2012 February forum: January 30, 2013

Questions:

Bonni Haber – bchaber@stritch.edu or (414) 410-4584

Cardinal Stritch University is in partnership with the New Teacher Center: www.newteachercenter.org

SEWNTP vision statement: Students' needs are met by effective and confident teachers who grow professionally through a collaborative network of induction. This network will transform and sustain the quality of leadership and education one person at a time.