

MULTICULTURAL IMAGE AWARD

To recognize students for their commitment to multicultural issues and an inclusive society

This award is designed to recognize and encourage a commitment to multicultural issues and efforts toward building an inclusive society and/or campus community. Each year the Student Affairs committee invites the faculty, staff, and students of the University community to nominate students for the Multicultural Image Award. Students are also welcome to nominate themselves for this award. Students who nominate themselves should include a letter of reference from someone who is knowledgeable about their commitment to multicultural issues.

The award is selected on the basis of the following criteria:

- the student provides exemplary personal leadership to the Stritch community, one's profession, or the greater community in the area of multiculturalism or diversity;
- the student demonstrates personal support and appreciation of diversity and inclusiveness in his/her personal life;
- the student has been enrolled at Stritch for a minimum of one year;
- the student has a solid record of academic achievement and/or contributions (a minimum 2.0 GPA required)

DEADLINE: Must be received by Noon on Friday, April 18th.

Submit nominations to:
