Finding the full-text or abstract of a dissertation

Dissertations and Theses Global database

Cardinal Stritch University faculty and students have access to the full text content of many dissertations through the ProQuest Dissertations and Theses Global database which can be found under the Articles & Databases link on the Library’s website.

Navigating to the Dissertations and Theses Global database

1. Click on the Articles & Databases link

2. From the Databases by Subject list, click on the Dissertations & Theses link

3. Click the Dissertations & Theses Global link to enter the database.

Off-campus access

If you are accessing the database from off-campus, you will be asked to log in to your library account. Login requires:

1. The barcode from your ID card (4505100…….), OR
2. Your student ID number prefaced by csu (csu1234567)
3. A password that you created
   a. If this is the first time you have logged in, the password would be changeme – all lowercase, no spaces.

Searching Dissertations and Theses Global

1. From the ProQuest Dissertations & Theses Global homepage, choose the Advanced Search link.

2. Using the drop-down, choose how you want to search for a specific dissertation – author, title, advisor, institution, etc.
   a. If you are searching by title, you may wish to put the title in quotes to have it read as a phrase.
3. Click the Search button to find the dissertation and access the abstract or full-text if available.